INDEX TO VOL. LIII

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ABBOTT (G. F.), Macedonia and its Revolutionary Committees, 414–429
Abyssinian Question, The, and its History, 79–97
Ackroyd (William), Radium and its Position in Nature, 856–864
Agitation against England's Power, The, 353–389
Agricultural Education in the Netherlands, 466–475
Agricultural Parcel Post, An, 253–263
Alexandria, School for the blind in, 1050–1052
Alpers (O. T. J.), The New Zealand Elections, 849–855
America, South, Europe and, 581–586
American industrial enterprise and the demand for capital, 98–106
American Manufactures, The Success of, 390–402
Anderson (Sir Robert), The Crusade against Professional Criminals, 496–508
Anti-duelling movement in Austria and Germany, 678–685
Army reform, Mr. Brodrick's scheme for, 514, 515
Arthur (Sir George), Loyalty to the Prayer Book, 567–576
Athanasian Creed, The, and Liberal Churchmanship, 577–580
Atlantic fisheries and the Bond-Hay Treaty, 924–935
Austen's (Jane) Novels, Another View of, 113–121
Autonomy for Ireland without separation, 918–923

BAGHDAD and Persian Gulf Railway, The, 892, 1063
Barnett (Mrs. S. A.), The Beginning of Toynbee Hall—a Reminiscence, 306–314
Benson (Arthur C.), Sir Oliver Lodge and our Public Schools, 41–47
Berkeley (George F. H.), The Abyssinian Question and its History, 79–97
Birrell (Augustine), Some more Letters of Mrs. Carlyle, 813–820
Bismarck, the German Emperor, and the Social Democrats, 755–772
Blind, The, in Egypt, Industries for, 1050–1052
Bond-Hay Treaty, The: a New Phase of the Anglo-American Dispute, 924–935
Book-knowledge and common-sense education, 315–329
Brahmin doctrine of reincarnation, its influence on Hindu conduct, 446–452
Bright (Charles), The Present Position of Wireless Telegraphy, 299–305
British and American manufacturers, their methods compared, 390–402
British Army recruits and the national physique, 797–805
British Colonies and the Mother Country, Mr. Chamberlain's advocacy of commercial reciprocity between, 897–917, 1056–1061
British Navy, Training of officers for the, 340, 341
British Philistinism and Indian Art, 198–209
Budget, The, 892–896
Bulgarian plots and Macedonian revolution, 414–429

CABINET, Powers of the, and influence of the Sovereign, 177–189
Cain's Wife, Who was? 330–336
Canada, South Africa, and Western Australia as wheat-growing countries, 670–677
Cancer, The Increase of, 1025–1038
Carlyle, Mrs., Some More Letters of, 813–820
Cassels (Walter R.), The Ripon Episode, 26–40

CAT

Catholic doctrine and the Church Discipline Bill, 533–554
Chamberlain, Mr., his visit to the Cape, 845, 846, 517; a glance at his career, 708–719; speech on fiscal concessions to the Colonies, 897–917, 1056–1061
Chapman (Hon. Mrs.), Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister, 982–988
Child labour and the Berlin Labour Conference, 523–527
Christian doctrines as expounded by the Bishop and the Dean of Ripon, 26–40
Church, The Crisis in the, 533–554; reply to, 747–754
Church's Last Chance, The, 555–566
Churchill (Lord Randolph) and the Tory Democratic Party, 132–142
Cimabue, The Real, 453–465
Classical education and the relative importance of Greek and Latin, 210–224
Clergy, The, and the Education Act, 1–13
Clifford (Mrs. W. K.), The Searchlight: a Play in One Act, 159–176
Collins (J. Churton), Free Libraries: their Functions and Opportunities, 968–981
Colonising South America, 581–586
Conquest by Bank and Railways, with examples from Russia in Manchuria, 936–949
Conservatives and the 'Fourth Party,' 132–142
Constitution, Our Changing—'The King in Council,' 177–189
Corn-growing in British Countries, 670–677
Corn Laws, The Effect of—a Reply, 264–274; a rejoinder, 476–483
Courtney (Leonard), What is the Advantage of Foreign Trade? 806–812
Cox (Harold), The Effect of Corn Laws—a Reply, 264–274; a rejoinder to, 476–488
Crackanthorpe (Montague), on criminal sentences, Reply to, 496–508
Crawfurd (Oswald) on English drama, Reply to, 614–627
Creation of man, theory of two races, the 'Sons of God' and the earth-born, 330–336
Creative Power affirmed by Science, 1068–1070
Crime, Prevention of, versus Punishment of Criminals, 496–508
Crisis, in the Church, The, 533–554; reply to, 747–754
Cross (J. W.), The Financial Future, 98–106

ENG

Crusade against Professional Criminals, The, 496–508
Currie (Lady), 'The Way of Dreams,' 950–967

DECEASED Wife's Sister, Marriage with a, 982–988
Delhi Durbar, The, 337–340
Didactic fiction as illustrated by the novels of the Brontë sisters, 484–495
Domestic service, Causes of the unpopularity of, 989–1001
— how to make it more attractive, 284–289
Douglas (Langton), The Real Cimabue, 453–465
Drama, Literary Critics and the, 614–627
'Dreams, The Way of,' 950–967
Duel, The, in Germany and Austria, 678–685
Dutch farming and agricultural education, 466–475
Dyer (E. Jerome), Corn-growing in British Countries, 670–677

ECHT (R. Cl. Bachofen von), The Duel in Germany and Austria, 678–685
Education Act, The Clergy and the, 1–13
Education Act, The Nonconformists and the, 14–25
Education Act, The, and the Education Bill for London, 149–154, 403–413, 511, 512, 887, 888
Education Authority for London, The New, 403–413
Education Bill for London, The, 1061–1063
Education in India, and the proper method of art teaching, 198–209
Education in public schools, replies to Sir O. Lodge's criticisms of, 41–53
Education, The Disadvantages of, 315–329
Egypt, Industries for the Blind in, 1050–1052
Egyptian temples, Orientation of, and Stonehenge, 1002–1009
Eltzbacher (O.), The Disadvantages of Education, 315–329; The Social Democratic Party in Germany, 755–772
England's Power, The Agitation against, 353–389
English and Russian Politics in the East, 67–78
English Church, The, its doctrine and ritual, 533–580
English drama and English literature, Estrangement between, and its remedy, 614–627

ETH

Ethiopia, ancient and modern, 79–96
Europe and South America, 581–586

FAMILY LIFE, The sanctity of, as affected by marriage of blood-relations, 982–988
Farm and garden produce, The need of a parcel post for, 253–263
Financial Future, The, 98–106
Fletcher (Frank), Sir Oliver Lodge and our Public Schools, 48–53
Food, The Price of, in Our Next Great War, 122–131
Foreign Trade, What is the Advantage of? 806–812
Forgotten Adventurer, A, 834–848
Foster (Sir Michael), The Growth of the Local Government Board, 107–112
'Fourth Party,' The Story of the: III. Its Nirvana, 132–142
Free Libraries: their Functions and Opportunities, 968–981
Fremantle (Dean) and the Bishop of Ripon on the Incarnation, 26–40
French appreciations of Pascal, 225–240
From this World to the Next, 645–650
Froude (J. A.) and the Carlyle Reminiscences and Letters, 814–820
Fuad Pasha, The Political Testament of, 190–197

GERMAN and Russian rivalry in Asia Minor, 362–385
Germany, The Social Democratic Party in, 755–772
Germany, Venezuela, and the United States, 340–344
Gladstone (Miss Annie), Another View of Jane Austen's Novels, 113–121
Gorst (Harold E.), The Story of 'The Fourth Party:' III. Its Nirvana, 132–142
Gorst (Sir John), Social Reform: The Obligation of the Tory Party, 519–532
Government departments, their functions and relative importance, 107–112
Greek, The Study of, 210–224

HALIFAX (Viscount), The Crisis in the Church, 538–554; reply to, 747–754
Handley (Rev. Hubert), An Appeal to the Dean and Canons of Westminster, 577–580
Hardie (J. Keir), The Independent Labour Party, 686–694

JAN

Harischandra (Narayan), Reincarnation, 446–452
Harrison (Frederic), From this World to the Next, 645–650
Harrison (Mrs. Frederic), Mistress and Maid, 284–289
Havell (E. B.), British Philistinism and Indian Art, 198–209; The Taj and its Designers, 1039–1049
Headlong Hall, Crotchet Castle, and other novels of Peacock, 651–664
Heaton (J. Henniker), An Agricultural Parcel Post, 253–263
Higgins (Alfred), The Monuments in St. Paul's Cathedral, 786–796
Hinks (Arthur H.), Stonehenge and the Midsummer Sunrise, 1002–1009
Hobson (J. A.), his book on Imperialism criticised, 806–812
Home Rule without Separation, 918–923
Human personality, Mr. Myers's book upon, reviewed, 628–644, 645–650
Hunter (Sir Robert), The Present Position of the Licensing Question, 695–707
Hutchinson (James G.), A Working Man's View of Trade-Unions, 290–298

IMPERIAL DEFENCE and the food supply, 122–131
Imperialism and foreign and colonial trade, 806–812
Imperial Reciprocity, 897–917
Indian architecture, history of the Taj Mahal at Agra, 1039–1049
Indian Art, British Philistinism and, 198–209
Industries for the Blind in Egypt, 1050–1052
Intellectual training in public schools, 41–53
Ireland, Prince and Parliament for, a new solution of the Home Rule problem, 918–923
Irish Bogs, A Future for, 876–882
Irish Land Bill, The: 'A Scheme of Pernicious Agrarian Quackery,' 721–737; The Latest: Is it the Last? 738–746
Irish Land Conference, 348, 349, 739–746
Irish Land Laws, The 'Horrible Jumble' of the, 599–613
Irish Land question, 889–891
Italian paintings falsely attributed to Cimabue, 453–465

JANSENISM, Port Royal, Pascal, and Angélique Arnauld, 225–240

JER

Jersey (Countess of), A Forgotten Adventurer, 834–848
Jones (Henry Arthur), Literary Critics and the Drama, 614–627

KELVIN (Lord) on Science and Theism, 1068–1070
Kenyon-Slaney clause of the Education Act, as affecting clerical management of Voluntary Schools, 1–13, 19, 25
Kesteven (W. Henry), Who was Cain's Wife? 330–336
King Edward VII.'s holiday tour, 883–885, 1065
'King, The, in Council,' Our Changing Constitution, 177–189
Kitchener (Lord), Lord Rosebery's proposal concerning, 347, 348
Knowles (James), Lord Kelvin on Science and Theism, 1068–1070
Kolli (Baron de), his scheme for the restoration of King Ferdinand VII. of Spain, 834–847

LABELS, 62–66
Labour Party, The Independent, 686–694
Laity, Rights of the, and the Church Discipline Bill, 533–554, 555–566, 567–576
Land Conference in Ireland, Recommendations of the, and the Irish Land Bill, 738–746
Land purchase in Ireland, Probable results of Mr. Wyndham's Bill for, 721–737
Landlord and tenant in Ireland, and 'dual ownership,' 599–613
Last Month, 143–158; 337–352; 509–518; 708–720; 883–896; 1053–1067
Lathbury (D. C.), The Clergy and the Education Act, 1–13
Lea (Hermann), Wessex Witches, Witchery, and Witchcraft, 1010–1023
Ledger (Rev. Edmund), The Canals of Mars: are they Real? 773–785
Licensing Question, The Present Position of the, 695–707
Liquor Question, The, and the Prohibition party in New Zealand, 849–855
Literary Critics and the Drama, 614–627
Local Government Board, The Growth of the, 107–112
Lodge, Sir Oliver, and our Public Schools, 41–53
London Congestion and Cross-Traffic, 821–833
London Water Bill, 153

MUR

Low (Sidney), Our Changing Constitution—'The King in Council,' 177–189
Loyalty to the Prayer Book, 567–576

MACDONELL (John), South American Republics and the Monroe Doctrine, 587–598
Macedonia and its Revolutionary Committees, 414–429
McGrath (P. T.), The Bond-Hay Treaty: a New Phase of the Anglo-American Dispute, 924–935
Mallock (W. H.), The Gospel of Mr. F. W. H. Myers, 628–644
Manchuria, Russian absorption of, 936–949
Manners and morals of modern Society, 54–61
Marconi's oceanic telegraphy, its present position, 299–305
Marriage with a Deceased Wife's Sister, 982–988
Mars, The Canals of: are they real? 773–785
Maxwell (Sir Herbert), Imperial Reciprocity, 897–905
Meath (Countess of), Industries for the Blind in Egypt, 1050–1052
Medd (John C.), Agricultural Education in the Netherlands, 466–475
Menelik, Emperor of Abyssinia, and the unification of Ethiopia, 79–97
Midhat (Ali Haydar), English and Russian Politics in the East, 67–78
Midsummer Sunrise, Stonehenge and the, 1002–1009
Military training and national physique, 797–805
Miller (Sir Alexander), The 'Horrible Jumble' of the Irish Land Laws, 599–613
Misnomers in common parlance, 62–66
Mistress and Maid, 284–289
Molesworth (Sir Guilford L.), The Effects of the Corn Laws—a Rejoinder, 476–483
Monroe Doctrine, South American Republics and the, 587–598
Monteagle (Lord), The Irish Land Bill:—The Latest: Is it the Last? 738–746
Monuments in St. Paul's Cathedral, 786–796
Morris (Judge O'Connor), The Irish Land Bill: A Scheme of Pernicious Agrarian Quackery, 721–737
Mortality from cancer, The increase in, 1025–1038
Murray (Capt. Stewart L.), The Price of Food in our Next Great War, 122–131

MYE

Myers (Mr. F. W. H.), The Gospel of, 628–644

NATIONAL PHYSIQUE, The Deterioration in, 797–805
Natural history observations on the raven, 241–252, 430–445
Netherlands, Agricultural Education in the, 466–475
Newfoundland, Canada, the United States, and the fisheries question, 924–935
New Letters and Memorials of Jane Welsh Carlyle reviewed, 813–820
New Zealand Elections, 849–855
Nonconformists, The, and the Education Act, 14–25

OBITUARY: Archbishop Temple and Dr. Parker, 157, 158; Quintin Hogg, M. de Blowitz, 352
Oliphant (Laurence), his weird dream and its fulfilment, 954–956
Optical illusions and the Canals of Mars, 773–785

PARCEL POST, An Agricultural, 253–263
Parker (Sir Gilbert), Imperial Reciprocity, 906–910
Parliament and politics, 347–352, 509–518, 708–720, 886–896, 1053–1064
Parliament, Labour representatives in, 686–694
Pascal, Port Royal and, 225–240
Paul (Herbert), The Novels of Peacock, 651–664; The Study of Greek, 210–224
Pauncefote (Hon. Maud), Washington, D.C., 275–283
Peacock, The Novels of, 651–664
Peat-bogs of Ireland, their utilisation for generating electric power, 876–882
Periodic classification of the elements, The position of radium in the, 856–864
Persian Gulf and British interests, Lord Lansdowne's declaration concerning, 1063–1064
Political Testament, The, of Fuad Pasha, 190–197
Ponsonby (Hon. Lady), Port Royal and Pascal, 225–240
Prayer Book, Loyalty to the, 567–576
Premonitory dreams, 950–967
Professional Criminals, The Crusade against, 496–508
Protestant Churchmen, Lord Halifax, and clergy discipline, 747–754

SOU

Public-houses and the new Licensing Act, 695–707
Public Schools, Sir Oliver Lodge and our, 41–53

RADIUM and its Position in Nature, 856–864
Ramsden (Lady Guendolen), Is Society Worse than it was? 54–61
Raven, The, 241–252, 430–445
Reciprocity, Imperial, 897–917
Reformation, The English, and its ideals, 560–564
Reid (Sir Wemyss), Last Month, 143–158; 337–352; 509–518; 708–720; 883–896; 1053–1067
Reincarnation, 446–452
Ripon Episode, The, 26–40
Rogers (Rev. J. Guinness), The Nonconformists and the Education Act, 14–25
Romanising clergy and Protestant laity, 533–554, 555–566, 567–576
Russia and England in the Far East, 155, 156, 353–389, 1064
Russia and Manchuria, acquisition by means of bank and railway, 936–949
Russian and English Politics in the East, 67–78

ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL, The Monuments in, 786–796
Salvation Army colony at Hadleigh, 665–669
Sankey (Lieut.-Gen. Sir Richard), A Future for Irish Bogs, 876–882
School authority for London, how should it be constituted? 403–413, 511, 512
Science and Theism, Lord Kelvin on, 1068–1070
Search-light, The: a Play in One Act, 159–176
Shah Jehan and the designers of the Taj Mahal at Agra, 1039–1049
Shee (George F.), The Deterioration in the National Physique, 797–805
Singing, The Lost Art of, 865–875
Smith (R. Bosworth), The Raven, 241–252, 430–445
Social Democratic Party in Germany, The, 755–772
Social Experiment, A, 665–669
Social Reform: The Obligation of the Tory Party, 519–532
Society, Is it worse than it was? 54–61
Somerset (Somers), Europe and South America, 581–586
South American Republics and the Monroe Doctrine, 587–598

STA

Stanley (Hon. E. Lyulph), The New Education Authority for London, 403–413
Stead (Alfred), Conquest by Bank and Railways, with examples from Russia in Manchuria, 936–949
Stonehenge and the Midsummer Sunrise, 1002–1009
Swinton (Capt. George S. C.), London Congestion and Cross-Traffic, 821–833

TAJ, The, and its Designers, 1039–1049
Taylor (Benjamin), Imperial Reciprocity, 911–917
Technical education and trades-unionism, 295–298
Telepathy, Phantasms of the dead and of the living, and hypnotism, 628–644
Theism, Science and, Lord Kelvin on, 1068–1070
Tory Democrats and the Conservative party, 132–142
Toynbee Hall, The Beginning of—A Reminiscence, 306–314
Trade Unions, A Working Man's View of, 290–298
Trades Union Congress, The, and the Independent Labour Party, 626–694
Traffic in London streets, Remedies for the congestion of, 821–833
Tuker (M. A. R.), The Lost Art of Singing, 865–875
Turkish reform, Views of Fuad Pasha upon, 190–197
Turkish reforms, Russian intrigues, and English policy, 67–78

UGANDA Railway, 153, 154
United States, Life at the capital of the, 275–283
United States, The, European Powers, and South America, 341–344, 581–586, 587–598
University Extension lectures, free libraries, and the advance of education, 968–981
Unpopular Industry, An, 989–1001

VAMBÉRY (Prof. A.), The Agitation against England's Power, 353–389

WOR

Venezuela, dispute with Great Britain and Germany, 143–149, 340–344, 516, 581–586, 587–598
Vocal music, Modern, The shortcomings of, 865–875
Voluntary schools and clerical management as affected by the Education Act, 1–13, 14–25

WALTON (J. Lawson), The Crisis in the Church: a Reply to Lord Halifax, 747–754
War, Our next Great, The Price of Food in, 122–131
Warwick (Countess of), A Social Experiment, 665–669
Washington, D.C., 275–283
Webb (Miss Catherine), An Unpopular Industry, 989–1001
Wellington monument in St. Paul's Cathedral, The, 791–796
Wessex Witches, Witchery, and Witchcraft, 1010–1023
Westminster, An Appeal to the Dean and Canons of, 577–580
Wheat, Prices of, as affected by Corn Laws, 476–483
Wheeler (C. B.), Labels, 62–66
Whitechapel as seen from its University settlement, 306–314
Wimborne (Lady), The Church's Last Chance, 555–566
Wireless Telegraphy, The Present Position of, 299–305
Witches, Witchery, and Witchcraft, Wessex, 1010–1023
Wolff (Dr. Alfred), The Increase of Cancer, 1025–1038
Wolff (Sir H. Drummond), Home Rule without Separation, 918–923
Womanhood as depicted by Jane Austen, 113–121
Woman's Franchise, The, in New Zealand, as affecting the Liquor question and Bible-reading in schools, 849–855
Women's Industrial Council, Inquiry into causes of the unpopularity of Domestic Service, 989–1001
Working classes, The, and war prices for food, 122–131
Working Man's View of Trade-Unions, A, 290–298